Numb. 11604.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 10, to Saturday October 14, 1775.

St. James's, October 14.

THE following Gentlemen, viz. Iſaac Hughes, Eſq; Chairman, the Right Honourable Thomas Harley, Zachary Philip Fonnereau, John Cornwall, John Rily, Samuel Smith, George Stainforth, Peter Cazalet, Richard Willis, John William Anderſon, Benjamin Winthrop, Edward Forſter, James Bogle French, Bignall Potter, and Peter Hodgſon, Eſquires, having been deputed to attend His Majeſty with an Addreſs of a very numerous Body of the Merchants and Traders of the City of London, they did all (except Mr. Cornwall and Mr. Rily, who were prevented by Illneſs) wait on His Majeſty with the following Addreſs, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly; and they had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, Merchants and Traders of the City of London, filled with the deepeſt Concern at the unjuſtifiable Proceedings of ſome of your Majeſty's Colonies in America, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne to teſtify our entire Diſapprobation and Abhorrence of them; with the moſt ſolemn Aſſurances that we will ſupport your Majeſty with our Lives and Fortunes, in maintaining the Authority of the Legiſlature of this Country, which, we conceive, does and ought to extend over and pervade every Part of the Britiſh Dominions.

With Regret and Indignation we ſee Colonies, which owe their Exiſtence, and every Bleſſing that attended their late proſperous Situation, to this their Parent Country, unnaturally regardleſs of the foſtering Hand that raiſed and ſupported them, and affecting Diſtinctions in their Dependence, not founded in Law, or in the Conſtitution of Great Britain.

We are convinced, by the experienced Clemency of your Majeſty's Government, that no Endeavours will be wanting to induce our deluded Fellow Subjects to return to their Obedience to that Conſtitution which our Anceſtors bled to eſtabliſh, and which has flouriſhed, pure and uninterrupted, under the mild Government of the Houſe of Hanover.

May that Being who governs the Univerſe ſo direct your Majeſty's Councils and Meaſures, that, from the preſent Confuſion, Order may ariſe, and Peace again be reſtored.

That your Majeſty may long reign over an happy and united People, is the earneſt Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects,

ISAAC Hughes

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Council, of the antient Burgh of Irvine, in Council aſſembled, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable Sir George Macartney, Knight of the Bath, their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates, and Council of your ancient Burgh of Irvine, in Council aſſembled, reflecting with Abhorrence upon the rebellious Diſpoſition of ſome of your Majeſty's American Subjects, and their unjuſtifiable Attempts to oppoſe the Laws of this Realm, and to diſturb the Tranquility of your Majeſty's mild and merciful Reign, which even the Unthankful as well as we have experienced, humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that as in laſt War a Number of brave Sailors from this Port diſtinguiſhed themſelves in the glorious Cauſe of your Majeſty and their Country againſt natural and Foreign Enemies, ſo we have ſtill Numbers equally brave and willing to aſſiſt your Majeſty and the Laws, in reducing unnatural and unprovoked Rebellion, in whatever Part of your extended Empire it ſhall rear its Head.

Deeply ſenſible of the Bleſſings of that Peace and Liberty which we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign; fully convinced of the Uprightneſs of your Majeſty's Government, and moſt firmly attached to your Majeſty's Perſon and Family; we alſo aſſure your Majeſty, we are ready on all Occaſions to ſupport and defend your Royal Perſon and the Conſtitution of our Country with our Lives and Fortunes, againſt all Foreign or Domeſtic Enemies.

Signed, in our Name, and by our Appointment, at Irvine, the 22d of September, 1775.

Alex. Montgomerie, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs of the Juſtices aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace held at the Caſtle of Exeter, in and for the County of Devon, on the 5th Day of October, 1775, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Richard Warwicke Bampfylde, Baronet, One of the Repreſentatives of the ſaid County in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of James Carrington, Clerk, Chairman, Sir Richard Warwicke Bampfylde, Baronet, Sir Thomas Dyke Acland, Baronet, Sir John Duntze, Baronet, Thomas Putt, Paul Orchard, Francis Baſſett, Francis Buller, Richard Inglett, Thomas Taylor, James Pitman, William Kitſon, John Wills, John Ruſſell Moore, Eſquires, Samuel Newte, John Cruwys, Richard Lewis, George Cooke and Richard Bawden, Clerks, Juſtices aſſigned to keep the Peace, and to hear and determine divers Felonies, Treſpaſſes, and Miſdemeanours, within the County of Devon, aſſembled at their General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, held at the Caſtle of Exeter, in and for the ſaid County, the Fifth Day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-five.

WE, your Majeſty's very dutiful and loyal Subjects, duly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings which we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, beg Leave to approach your Throne, in this alarming Criſis of Public Affairs, with every Teſtimony of our ſincereſt Duty and Affection for your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government, and to aſſure your Majeſty, that, although we cannot diveſt ourſelves of thoſe Feelings of Humanity which induce us to lament the Miſeries which our deluded Fellow-Subjects in America have brought upon themſelves by that daring Abuſe which they have made of your parental Tenderneſs and Forbearance towards them, whereby your Majeſty has been compelled, much againſt the benevolent Sentiments of your own Heart, to make the laſt Appeal, in order to reduce them to their Duty; and although we earneſtly wiſh, agreeably to thoſe Feelings, to ſtop the farther Effuſion of Human Blood, by every conciliating Meaſure which can be deviſed, conſiſtently with the Dignity and Safety of the Supreme Legiſlative Authority of this Realm; yet, as good Subjects, we cannot forbear teſtifying, at this important Juncture, our unfeigned Readineſs to ſtrengthen the Hands of Government, by giving every Aſſiſtance in our Power towards accompliſhing this moſt deſirable Event; that, by the Wiſdom and Firmneſs of your Councils, you may be enabled to bring back the miſguided Inhabitants of your American Dominions to a juſt Senſe of their Duty, and a peaceable Submiſſion to the Laws of their Mother Country.

And we ſhould be wanting to ourſelves and to our Duty, as the Guardians of the Public Peace, did we paſs over in Silence, and were we not openly to declare our Diſapprobation of thoſe Aſſociations which have been endeavoured to be procured by circular Letters and factious Emiſſaries, diſperſed throughout the Kingdom, in order to diſturb the Peace of your Majeſty's Dominions, and in open Defiance of your late Royal Proclamation; for which daring Inſult (big with every Miſchief) offered to the Powers with which your Majeſty is inveſted for the Security of the Public Tranquility, we beſeech your Majeſty, that the Propagators and Abettors of ſuch inſidious Meaſures may be brought to ſpeedy and condign Puniſhment.

And we earneſtly ſupplicate the great Diſpoſer of all Things, to give Stability and Succeſs to every conſtitutional Meaſure, which your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Care for your People ſhall deem neceſſary, for re-eſtabliſhing the Public Peace and Tranquility of your Colonies; and that you may long continue to reign in the Hearts of a dutiful and united People, in the full Enjoyment of every earthly Bleſſing, is our moſt earneſt and ardent Prayer.

By the Court,

John Helliar, Clerk of the Peace.

The following Addreſs of the Officers of the Firſt Regiment of the Devonſhire Militia, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Colonel Acland, Lieutenant-Colonel Orchard, and Major Baſſett, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly, and they had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Officers of the Firſt Regiment of the Devonſhire Militia.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Officers of the Firſt Regiment of the Militia of your County of Devon, now aſſembled at Exeter, hope we ſhall not be eſteemed preſumptuous, if, in the Name of the Regiment, we venture to approach your Royal Perſon with our unanimous Aſſurances of that Fidelity and Attachment, which a mild, juſt, and equal Government muſt ever produce in the Minds of Britons.

Conſcious that, under your Majeſty's benign Government, and the Influence of this happy Conſtitution, we enjoy every Species of Liberty compatible with the Exiſtence of Society, we ſhould think ourſelves inexcuſable if we did not take this Opportunity of joining our uninfluenced Voice to that of our Countrymen, publickly to expreſs the juſt Abhorrence in which we hold every Attempt to alienate the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects.

Fully perſuaded that that Conſtitutional Body, of which we form a Part, will be always found a firm Support to your Majeſty's Government, we ſhould not have intruded on your Royal Preſence, but that, in Times like theſe, we think it as much the Duty, as we know it is the Intereſt, of every Man of Property, to ſhew a more than negative Allegiance to the beſt of Sovereigns.

None can hold in greater Deteſtation than we do the unnatural Behaviour of your American Subjects. The Conſtitution has preſcribed to us our Sphere of Action; but we muſt beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall at all Times be as ready to exert our utmoſt Efforts to ſuppreſs any internal Enemies of your Majeſty's Government and this Conſtitution, as our gallant Countrymen have been in aſſerting the juſt Rights of the Britiſh Empire in America.

May your Majeſty's Reign continue glorious; may the united Efforts of a great, free, and loyal People render your Majeſty's Endeavours to re-eſtabliſh the violated Supremacy of the Britiſh Legiſlature over every Part of your Majeſty's Dominions as effectual as they are juſt.

The following Addreſſes have been preſented to His Majeſty by Robert Manners, Eſq; (his Father, the Right Honourable Lord Robert Manners, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the Town of Kingſton upon Hull, having been prevented by Illneſs from preſenting them) being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly; and Mr. Manners had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the Town of Kingſton upon Hull, in Common-Council aſſembled.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the Town of Kingſton upon Hull, deeply impreſſed with a Senſe of thoſe Royal Virtues, which have happily diſtinguiſhed your Reign, and are the great Support of our Civil and Religious Liberties, beg Leave to approach your Throne, and to declare our Abhorrence of the unnatural Rebellion which prevails in ſome of your Majeſty's Colonies in North America. We have beheld with that Indignation that becomes good Subjects, in thoſe Parts of your Majeſty's Dominions, an Impatience of good Order and Government, ſeditious Aſſemblies, traiterous Addreſſes and Correſpondencies, inſolent and daring Violations of private Property and legal Authority, and at Length an open and hoſtile Defiance of the whole Power of the Britiſh Empire; Crimes of ſuch Magnitude, ſo unprovoked, ſo deliberately committed, have juſtly merited the heavieſt Puniſhment: Yet the Benignity of your Majeſty's Counſels and Diſpoſition long ſuſpended the Stroke of Juſtice. Happy for theſe deluded Men, if the Delay of Puniſhment had removed the Cauſe for this ſo neceſſary an Exertion of Power! But the Malignity of their Counſels, and the factious Deſigns of Men, who have abetted their Cauſe in this Country, ſuppreſſed in them all Sentiments of Gratitude and Loyalty, and miſled them from their own Intereſt and Preſervation, to almoſt inevitable Ruin. In a Situation ſo diſtreſsful to a good Prince, we lament the Neceſſity, but we applaud the Firmneſs of your Reſolution to uſe vigorous Meaſures in the Support and Protection of the Laws and Liberties, which theſe licentious Men have ſo unjuſtly violated, but which we value and enjoy.

And we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will exert our utmoſt Endeavours, at the Expence of our Lives and Fortunes, to ſupport your Majeſty in the Defence and Maintenance of our Conſtitutional Rights, and the Honour and Dignity of the Crown of theſe Realms.

Given under our Common Seal this 19th Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, 1775.

Kingſton upon Hull, Sept. 26, 1775.

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and Principal Inhabitants, of the Town of Kingſton upon Hull.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and Principal Inhabitants, of your Town of Kingſton upon Hull, with grateful Hearts, crave Leave to approach your Royal Throne with the Tribute of our ſincere and hearty Thanks for the Happineſs we have enjoyed under your Majeſty's juſt and mild Adminiſtration, and at this Time particularly for your paternal Care in the Conduct of the Public and National Affairs in the preſent unhappy Differences with the Britiſh Colonies in America. Permit us to teſtify our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the violent and unnatural Rebellion which thoſe deluded People have been hurried into by our and their Enemies, who, under the Maſk of Friendſhip and Zeal for Public Liberty, have, by malicious Calumnies and pernicious Inſinuations, (propagated in the News-Papers, and by various other Means) inſtigated Meaſures tending to the utter Deſtruction of all true Liberty, and all Duty and Loyalty to your Majeſty. But we hope your Majeſty's wiſe and reſolute Proceedings againſt thoſe your rebellious Subjects will at Length bring them to a due Senſe of their Duty, and Submiſſion to the Laws of their Mother Country, ſo that all Differences between them and this Nation may be ſettled upon a permanent Foundation, to the mutual Happineſs and Proſperity of both, which we ardently wiſh. And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we (confiding in your Juſtice and Goodneſs) ſhall always be ready, to the utmoſt of our ſeveral Powers and Abilities, to ſupport your Majeſty in all ſuch juſt Meaſures, as You in your Wiſdom ſhall think fit to take to this deſireable End.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Guild or Brotherhood of Maſters and Pilots Seamen of the Trinity-Houſe of Kingſton upon Hull.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Guild or Brotherhood of Maſters and Pilots Seamen of the Trinity-Houſe of Kingſton upon Hull, conſider the many Privileges granted to our ancient Corporation by your Royal Predeceſſors, and the great Advantages derived to us as a Maritime Body, and to the Town of Hull by your Majeſty's kind Attention to encourage and ſecure the Navigation and Commerce of theſe Kingdoms, as very great and ſubſtantial Bleſſings.

To Minds thus gratefully inſpired, and uninfluenced by Party, nothing can create deeper Concern than to behold Attempts made to diſturb publick Tranquility, and to overthrow the peaceable Enjoyment of every Thing that is dear or valuable.

We therefore think it highly incumbent on us, at a Period ſo truly alarming as the preſent, when we ſee the People in moſt of your Majeſty's Provinces in North America, cheriſhed and aſſiſted by ill-deſigning Perſons, ſo infatuated as to deny the Legiſlative Authority, and ſo daringly wicked as to act in open Rebellion, to give your Majeſty this Teſtimony of our unfeigned Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, by earneſtly aſſuring your Majeſty, that we hold in the utmoſt Abhorrence, Men capable of ſuch Proceedings; and that we think it our Duty, as far as we are able, to aſſiſt your Majeſty in bringing thoſe unhappy and deluded People to a Senſe of their Allegiance, and in carrying carrying into Execution the Legiſlative Authority of Great Britain.

Given under our Common Seal the Twenty-third Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-five.

Thomas M'Farland, } Wardens.
John Staniforth, }

AT the Court at St. James's, the 27th Day of September, 1775,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majeſty was pleaſed, by His Order in Council of the 23d Day of Auguſt laſt, to prohibit the Exportation out of this Kingdom into any Parts beyond the Seas, or Carrying Coaſtwiſe, any Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, for and during the Space of Three Months from the Date of the ſaid Order: And whereas His Majeſty judges it neceſſary that the Exportation of Saltpetre, or Carrying the ſame Coaſtwiſe, ſhould be likewiſe prohibited during the ſaid Time; — His Majeſty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy-Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, That no Perſon or Perſons whatſoever (except the Maſter-General, Lieutenant-General, or Principal Officers of the Ordnance, for His Majeſty's Service) do, at any Time during the Term limited by His Majeſty's aforementioned Order in Council of the 23d of Auguſt laſt, preſume to tranſport, into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coaſtwiſe, any Saltpetre, or ſhip or lade any Saltpetre on Board any Ship or Veſſel, in order to tranſporting the ſame into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the ſame Coaſtwiſe, without Leave or Permiſſion in that Behalf firſt obtained from His Majeſty, or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and ſuffering the Forfeiture and Penalty inflicted by an Act paſſed in the 29th Year of His late Majeſty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to impower His Majeſty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt-petre, and to inforce the Law for impowering His Majeſty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition; and alſo to impower His Majeſty to reſtrain the Carrying Coaſtwiſe of Saltpetre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition." And the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, the Commiſſioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Maſter-General of the Ordnance, and His Majeſty's Secretary at War, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein as to them may reſpectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

Conſtantinople, September 4. The Head of the Sheck Daher is brought to the Porte, with ſixteen Heads of his Adherents, ſent hither by the Captain Paſcha, who has ſeized all Sheck Daher's Treaſure to an immenſe Value.

Moſcow, September 11, N. S. Yeſterday, being the Feaſt of St. Alexander Newſky, the Knights of that Order had, according to Cuſtom, the Honour of Dining with the Empreſs. There was a Ball at Court in the Evening, but her Imperial Highneſs's Indiſpoſition did not admit of her being preſent at it.

Naples, September 12. On Sunday Night their Sicilian Majeſties, after having been pleaſed to give a Firework and Ball at their Caſine at Pauſillipo, embarked on board a Galeotte, and went to the Iſland of Procita.

Naples, September 19. His Sicilian Majeſty has been ſlightly indiſpoſed at the Iſland of Procita; and the Court, which was to have returned to Portici on Monday laſt, is not expected here till Tomorow.
